

Private pilots get first class underwriting with Lincoln

Exclusive service for your pilot clients

If you have clients who are private pilots, they've probably faced their share of challenges getting life insurance. That's why Lincoln has dedicated teams that provide customer-focused underwriting for special groups like private pilots. In fact, one of the reasons that Lincoln is a top distributor of life insurance is that we don't just talk a good game about customer service — we deliver.

Private pilot clients can qualify as preferred on their Lincoln life insurance application if they:

Meet all preferred criteria and other criteria described in Underwriting Guidelines

Have an instrument flight rating or 1,000 total flight hours

Fly between 25 and 250 hours a year in the U.S. and Canada

Demonstrate a clean motor vehicle record

Are under age 70
